An operating system for venture deals

Zefyron is an AI-powered operating system for venture deals, built to transform how startups, investors, corporates, and academic institutions connect, evaluate, and execute opportunities. What began as a set of fundraising tools has grown into a full platform that carries founders from first pitch to closed round.

Most platforms stop at information. Zefyron is built to drive outcomes, an AI-guided system supporting matching, evaluation, and execution across the entire deal lifecycle, backed by enterprise-grade security and a global network spanning more than 90 countries.

THE CHALLENGE

Corporates need to find the right funding and innovation partners fast, stay ahead of market trends, and manage deal flow efficiently without juggling a dozen disconnected tools.

How Zefyron helps

Global Database

390K+ investors across 90+ countries and 2.8M+ startups in 70+ industries.

Dealmaker Tool

Streamlines deal flow with partners who share your strategic vision.

Trendist & Research

Bi-weekly trend updates plus market, competitor, and patent-level analysis.

THE NETWORK AT A GLANCE

40%

Less time identifying potential startups

25%

Increase in successful deals

Discover, match, and diligence

A live, filterable view of the global startup landscape, built for investors scouting deal flow, corporates hunting acquisition targets, and founders scoping the competition.

Compare over 2.8 million verified startups

Filter by industry, funding stage, and region

Spot partnership and acquisition targets

Real-time performance and growth insights

Stop cold-emailing generic lists. Find Investors surfaces the funders whose sector focus, geography, and cheque size genuinely match your raise, so every outreach starts from real fit.

Access 390K+ verified global investors

Filter by sector, geography, range, and stage

Identify best-fit investors for your goals

Connect directly to start real conversations

Once conversations start, My Dataroom becomes the single source of truth for due diligence - one secure link, granular permissions, and a full record of who viewed what and when.

A secure, cloud-based collaboration space

Share decks, financials, and sensitive data

Permission-based access for stakeholders

Industry-standard encryption and privacy

Instead of waiting weeks and paying thousands for a third-party valuation, get a defensible, methodology-backed number in minutes - a report investors recognize and respect.

5 globally recognized valuation models

Transparent, data-driven reports

Benchmark against industry standards

Strengthen your funding or exit strategy

The AI pitch deck generator turns a short description of your business into an investor-ready draft in seconds - which you then refine, brand, and export as a full deck, one-pager, or summary.

AI-enhanced decks built to attract investors

Show traction, market, and projections clearly

Align visuals and storytelling with your brand

Generate one-pagers and executive summaries

Discover, match, and diligence

Before you are in the room, the readiness check pressure-tests your materials the way a real investor would - scoring traction, market sizing, and narrative, then flagging what to fix first.

360° feedback on materials and positioning

A verified Investor Readiness Score

Fix gaps in presentation, traction, valuation

Expert advice to enhance investor appeal

Great decks fail when the story around them is inconsistent. From Brand to Pitch aligns your website, deck, and outreach messaging into one coherent narrative investors can follow at a glance.

A complete brand narrative for investors

Cohesive visuals, decks, and materials

Message consistency from website to pitch

Trust and clarity through presentation

A live, filterable view of the global startup landscape, built for investors scouting deal flow, corporates hunting acquisition targets, and founders scoping the competition.

Connected with best-matched investors

Personalized introductions by sector

Verified investor networks for wider reach

A streamlined path from contact to closing

GROWTH SERVICES

Beyond the platform, our growth team turns visibility into qualified pipeline - building the product, surfacing the brand, and driving the demand that fills it.

Platform & product development

End-to-end design and build of dashboards, websites, and full product platforms.

GEO & AI visibility

Generative-engine optimisation that surfaces brands in ChatGPT, Google AI, and beyond.

Growth marketing

LinkedIn, paid search, and outbound that turn visibility into qualified pipeline.

Turn connections into outcomes

Join the network where startups become investor-ready, capital meets quality, corporates scout innovation, and academia powers the next generation of founders.
